Description: This baby is not comforted by a teddy bear or toy. This baby wants only one thing: milk! When baby is hungry, neither his teddy bear, his ball, nor even his shiny tambourine will soothe him. This tribute to the nursing baby - and even more so, to the breastfeeding mother - will read as conventional to babies and toddlers but as taboo-busting to parents....

Review: My daughter is almost 2 and it started bothering me that all of her bedtime stories had only babies fed with bottles. I felt like our nursing relationship wasn't represented and she couldn't relate. I found a few books about nursing, but they seemed a little weird and others were more informative and above her age range. I stumbled upon this recommendation...
